

COVID- Companion Telehealth

Attachment A: Service Description

Companion service provided to a consumer via telehealth (including telephone and live video) to provide socialization and reduce isolation. Consumers would benefit from tele-visits as interaction, socialization, community gatherings have reduced and declined due to COVID19. Consumers would interact and socialization with companions via telecommunications maintaining relationships, hobbies, and beneficial engagement.